Communication

Communication with families about school programs and student progress through effective and timely school-home and home-school communication:

- School staff is available by phone and by email. School hours are 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
- Weekly school newsletter; school website; PES Facebook page, School Messenger
- Parents are notified about their child's progress at an interim period and at the end of marking period. Parents receive student assessment scores.
- Providing opportunities for parent/teacher conferences during which the compact is discussed as it relates to achievement.
- Community resources are available by request or are available in the main office.
- Family nights are scheduled and advertised through the website, newsletter, social media, and School Messenger.
- Two-way communication through emails, phone calls, and teacher communication folders.

Interpreters and translators will be made available upon request. Reasonable support will be provided to parents to participate in parental involvement activities upon request.

Working with the Community

Parent activities will be coordinated throughout the year in collaboration with the following community agencies to strengthen families in connection with the school and supporting resources:

- School Resource Officer: mentoring, school safety
- Caroline County Recreation and Parks: athletics, dance, and arts programs; provides nutritional curriculum to support families
- Choptank Community Health: mental and physical health for families
- Food for Learning: provides backpacks of food for students in need each week
- Judy Center/Head Start – provides academic and social support for families with children age 3

Parent and Family Member Input (You are an important part of the process)

Families as Partners

We believe that families play an important role in their child's learning as well as prepare them for academic and life-long learning. Parent/Family Engagement is essential to educate our students. We provide these opportunities for families to be engaged during a variety of times such as morning and evening:

- Will convene annual meeting at convenient times to inform parents of the school's role and requirements of implementing Title I and the rights of parents to be involved
- Academic nights to share strategies for enhancing skills at home in addition to reviewing with families how to read and interpret test score, understand state academic standards, and improve achievement
- Book Fairs to provide families opportunities to engage in the selection of age appropriate reading materials to read together at home
- Visitations during American Education Week that allow parents and family members the opportunity to view instructional strategies in an effort to better support students at home
- Family Make-and-Take events to provide parents the opportunity to learn about and create resources for aiding student in concept development at home
- Maintaining open and on-going communication with parents and students on academic achievement and in a language that the family members can understand
- Volunteer opportunities are available throughout the year. Parents are encouraged to complete the application process by contacting the Parent Service Provider or visiting the CCPS website.
